Bio Magnets for Health

In this world we need 4 essentials for healthy life.

1.Water 2.Oxygen 3.Food 4.Magnetic Field

Overview:

Bio magnets, or magnetic therapy, involve the use of magnets to maintain health and treat various conditions. It's based on the idea that magnetic fields can influence the body's energy and improve well-being.

Potential Benefits:

1. Pain Relief:

- Arthritis and Joint Pain: Magnets may help reduce pain and inflammation.
- Back and Neck Pain: Some people use magnetic therapy for chronic pain relief.

2. Improved Circulation:

- Magnets are thought to increase blood flow, which can promote healing and reduce pain.

3. Enhanced Energy Levels:

- Users report feeling more energetic and less fatigued.

4. Better Sleep:

- Magnetic therapy might improve sleep quality by reducing discomfort and promoting relaxation.

5. Reduced Inflammation:

- Magnets are believed to have anti-inflammatory effects, helping with conditions like tendinitis and other inflammatory disorders.

Common Uses:

- Magnetic Bracelets and Jewellery: Worn on the wrist or neck for overall health benefits.
- Magnetic Mattresses and Pads: Used during sleep to enhance rest and alleviate pain.
- Localized Magnets: Applied directly to painful or injured areas.

Mechanism of Action:

- Theories suggest that magnets might influence iron in the blood or electromagnetic fields in the body, leading to improved circulation and pain relief.

Conclusion:

Bio magnets may offer potential health benefits, particularly for pain relief and improved circulation.

However, the scientific evidence is not conclusive, and individuals should approach magnetic therapy as a complementary treatment rather than a primary medical intervention. Always consult with a healthcare provider before starting any new treatment.

- ❖ It is most useful in controlling Blood Pressure (B.P.) To be worn on the left hand for low B.P. and right hand for high B.P.
- ❖ After injury or surgery, the alternate use of ice and heat is usually recommended to relieve pain and increase blood flow to heal the injured area. This traditional method works well, but cannot be applied continuously.
- ❖ Neodymium Magnet therapy offers a permanent alternative to assist rapid healing and reduce swelling. Studies have demonstrated that strong magnets have the potential to reduce swelling, bruising, and pain, in those recovering from surgical wounds.
- ❖ When in contact with your body, magnets increase the circulation or flow of your blood. This increase in blood flow then creates an increase in the delivery of oxygen and vital nutrients to the tissues all around your body. When there is extra oxygen and vital nutrients your body's cells can repair and heal faster than normal.

Product #10

R-Lions Bio Magnetic mattress

Neodymium magnets are a type of rare earth magnet known for their exceptional strength and versatility. Neodymium magnets are the strongest permanent magnets available today. They are composed primarily of neodymium (Nd), iron (Fe), and boron (B), with small amounts of other elements. This composition gives them their strong magnetic properties.

Enhanced blood circulation and oxygen levels in painful areas provide 100% natural, permanent pain relief. The main root cause is poor blood circulation and oxygen deficiency, which can lead to multiple blood vessel blockages. The Bio Magnetic Mattress is made from biomedical-grade Neodymium magnets that are highly polarized—often referred to as the king of bio magnets for human health.

This bioenergy bio magnet is 100% safe, natural, non-toxic, and eco-friendly, with zero side effects. The mattress effectively works from head to toe, purifying the total blood in your body and providing comprehensive relief from body pain. It also helps prevent hereditary genetic diseases and assists in alleviating conditions like cholesterol, high blood pressure, and diabetes.

The Bio Magnetic Mattress is particularly effective for relieving back pain, knee pain, headaches, and migraines, and it accelerates tissue and bone healing. It improves blood circulation and capillary circulation, making it beneficial for those suffering from sleeping problems or insomnia.

In summary, the Bio Magnetic Mattress offers holistic pain relief and health benefits, enhancing overall well-being and promoting better sleep quality.

Bio Energy Negative ion Card consists of FIR (Far Infrared Ray), which helps to heal our body. It is consisting of very high value capacity for body healing if used daily. Through the processing procedure of this bio energy card, the infrared rays are eliminated and the pure well-chosen FIR wave-length, which are nearest to the micro element of human body are retained in The Bio Energy Negative Ion Card.
